

SIKORA HELENA

Nationality: Polish; Date of birth: 11.06.1982

I have been working in the design industry for over 13 years, with my most recent experience being a Visual Communication Specialist at Estancia Group. The variety of projects has taught me line valuable skills such as good communication, high creativity and out of the box thinking. This connected with my economic and linguistic psychology education has made me more empathetic UX Designer.
